

California Legislature

Joint Informational Hearing

Assembly Select Committee on International and Regional Agreements – Chair, Marc Levine
Assembly Committee on Agriculture – Chair, Susan Talamantes Eggman
Assembly Committee on Jobs, Economic Development, and the Economy – Chair, Sabrina Cervantes

Impact of the U.S. Trade Dispute with China on California's Economy

Tuesday, June 4, 2019
1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
State Capitol, Room 127

Agenda

The Assembly Select Committee on International and Regional Agreements and the Standing Committees on Agriculture and on Jobs, Economic Development, and the Economy are convening a joint informational hearing on June 4, 2019 to provide insights on the impact of the U.S. trade dispute with China on California and key economic sectors in the state.

I. Welcome, Introductions, and Opening Statements

Assemblymember Levine, Chair (International and Regional Agreements)
Assemblymember Eggman, Chair (Agriculture)
Assemblymember Cervantes, Chair (Jobs, Economic Development, and the Economy)
Members of the Committees

II. Keynote Remarks – Lieutenant Governor Eleni Kounalakis

III. Economic Implications for California

Daniel Sumner – Professor, Dept. of Economics and Director of Agricultural Issues Center, University of California, Davis
Katheryn Russ – Associate Professor, Dept. of Economics, University of California, Davis

IV. Key Sector Impacts

Matt Davis – Director of Governmental Affairs, Port of Oakland
Rachel Michelin – President, California Retailers
Courtney Jensen – Executive Director, TechNet
Honore Comfort – Vice President of International Marketing, Wine Institute
Dave Puglia – Executive Vice President, Western Growers Association
Michael Young – Legislative Advocate, California Labor Federation

V. Public Comment

VI. Closing Remarks